Case No. 2:15-cv-01359

THIRD PARTY DEFENDANT'S REQUEST
TO BE EXCUSED FROM PERSONALLY
APPEARAING AT THE MANDATORY
SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

1 COMES NOW Third party defendant, RYAN RICHARDS, by and
2 through his counsel of record, BENJAMIN J. CARMAN, ESQ., of 3 the law office RANALLI ZANIEL FOWLER & MORAN, LLC, and 4 requests the Court to excuse him from the settlement
5 conference scheduled for October 11, 2017, at 9:00 a.m.

6 Mr. Richards lives in Victorville, California. His 7 insurance carrier representative is located in Chandler,
8 Arizona. Mr. Richards has no significant assets to contribute
9 toward settlement of this matter¹. Mr. Richards' carrier
10 exhausted his policy's bodily injury liability limit when it
11 settled with plaintiff Sarah Dixon pre-litigation. There are 12 no remaining policy benefits available to contribute to settlement.

24 ¹ see the Declaration of Ryan Richards, filed in conjunction with his renewed motion for determination of good faith settlement, ECF No. 83, in which he affirms his past and current lack of assets.

1 Mr. Richards and his liability insurer's adjuster can be
2 available via telephone during the conference. But both Mr.
3 Richards and his carrier have nothing to contribute toward
4 resolving this matter that could in any way shape or influence
5 its outcome. Personally appearing would incur additional 6 expense for both Mr. Richards and his carrier for no
7 appreciable chance of resolution or benefit to any party.
